Messrs S. H. & H. Chapman
Dear Sirs.

Yrs. with Invoice rec'd just rec'd. I will Run it at the Price of 75 cts.
I regret to say that your letter relating P.
Rico (2 pcs.) has not as yet materialized. The Postmaster of this Borough asks me to write at once, so that you can trace the letter — if possible. I assume that Sr. address is on the envelope. This is the first time to my knowledge that a letter has miscarried. In reference, to the 3 pieces. To which you call my attention,

I submit:— Kindly send Lubbing of 8 R. 1802,
"diamond piece cut out of centre + both sides small as stamped —
If not to be owned. It undoubtedly is the c'stamp for Guadeloupe if not error. it may or may not belong to Guadeloupe.

That is yet to be determined from 8 R. 1806 cs.t J. R.
I can not place. "J. R" is the b.s. for King of Sweden John Rex. He reigned as Charles XIV. from 1818 to 1844 But to apply this b.s. to Sweden or Norway instead of some of the countries is a matter for experts to decide. If I can get any definite information will impart it.

(In regards the Mexican $ stamped both sides with G. R flourished in depressed round circle, I will give you for it if the Sacred Heart stamp are fine $6. If barely good will give but $5. I already have two or three pieces but of lesser value with the same Cts. within two years I paid for a very fine 2 cents bearing this Cts.

Bought it at Auction. The two $ Rls. I bought at one of Low's Sales (3 for 30. 1140: remember) & paid about $8. for one & a Triple more for the other; but the Cs of each, "G. R". was crowded & on one messed That, too, the best. was on but one side. & Hence this rare type of the "G. R" C's stamp Such never been offered at Auction in U.S.A.
Possibly, your customer may have to weight

my offer rather than have it run the gauntlet of an auction, with his 25 per cent to pay.
At any rate this is all I can do for — having already the b.s.
As you know that is but slight demand for these Cd. of R. Treaty
Yours
Foster Ely

Some weeks ago you sent me an article at $1.25 what you alleged to be a Totem of the Canary Islands I can not make out its True attribution. Lyman Low and J. W. Keith say it may or may not belong to the Canary Islands

I return the Totem, though I will gladly retain it if eminent authority can be adduced as to attribution to the Canaries. Your sister &

Thank you for thinking of me. Overalls etc I return cond. by I have a large supply Egeon & so modern Matta Fellows I do not care. It might save us both the trouble & registering if you write whenever you have anything in the nicotian line you think I may need — marking the price & giving its date, condition & price. Then I can by return post inform you whether the price is just as desired. Hope you'll inform me whenever you have anything enticing. Even if not desiring it, I'll gladly pay postage. Have sent many bids for Sep. sale at Amsterdam. Sellmann guarantees his goods. I think he is accepting the classification of Prof. Bargobe in his last sale account for me.

Many emotions & attributions & fine nicetimes being offered style on both and familiar have had a season enjoyable. Cordially yours
